We have established a reputation for excellence in service and the quality of our staff. Our recruitment consultants are professionals with experience in these sectors and bring a deep knowledge and understanding of our clients' and candidates' requirements.

Finding the right people for our clients

There is a strong demand for quality, highly effective and qualified professionals in our sector that is not easily met from the available supply. To recruit the people we need in an efficient way requires a different way of working and thinking.

With one of the largest databases of professional jobseekers in our sectors, we can quickly match your requirements and supply a selection of high quality candidates who are available for temporary and permanent opportunities.

Our recruitment consultants are deeply embedded in the careers and guidance sectors and our own networks ensure we reach the best candidates fast. The reputation of Triangle is well known and candidates are introduced to us from other people who have worked with us.

We don't just sit and wait. We are out there, in the market, spotting talent and generating interest from graduating students, those currently in employment and those in transition.

Whilst we search and place permanent staff, we also understand the need for speedy short term staffing solutions, sometimes due to sickness or holidays, to fill the gap until you recruit a permanent employee or to cover a short term funded project.

Working for our candidates

Our candidates are as important to us as our clients and in this way we uphold our reputation and attract the very best people. We place great emphasis on establishing long term relationships with candidates. When a candidate registers with us they are assigned their own personal consultant who works hard to find the right opportunity for them.

We ensure that all our candidates are fully vetted including checking qualifications, references and we undertake CRB enhanced checks on everyone who wishes to work with us.

For our temporary workers all payments, national insurance and employer liabilities rest with Triangle so you have complete peace of mind.
