

About igen

igen is proud to be at forefront of delivering careers and personal development services to young people and adults

Our experienced and impartial advisers provide support to guide young people and adults to progress and achieve. We have helped over 100,000 people to overcome barriers to achievement.

We provide support on all aspects of careers and personal development including:

- Which career is for me?
- How to apply - CV's and application forms
- Interview skills
- Developing your career - how to get a promotion, change of career to gain new skills to overcome barriers.

igen delivers public and private contracts to provide careers and personal development advice, information and guidance which is free to access. Our services include Connexions and e2e for young people and nextstep and basic & employability skills for adults. We also offer a paid for service - Careergen.

igen aims to inspire, guide and enable individuals to achieve their potential through the provision of impartial, high quality career and personal development services.

Related Links

- Careergen

igen's information, advice, guidance and personal development service.

For more information, please Contact US